

Research Design

10: operationalizing research

Initial questions?

operationalizing research

operationalize research operationalize, v. | 1. To express or determine in operational terms. 2. To put into effect, to realize.

Question

Answer

specificity test | from your research question to its answer, can you imagine every step needed to link these together by following only what is written in your proposal?

group work